Supporting Evidence: On May 1, 2012, charges were filed against Noe Vega Campos in Yakima Municipal Court for the crime of communicating with a minor for immoral purposes (case number H00019791).

According to a supplemental incident report from the Yakima Police Department (case number 12Y015403), on April 20, 2012, the defendant met two 14-year-old females while at the Southeast Community Center who reported they were 17 years old. The defendant allegedly befriended them and took them to the residence of a friend who is a documented gang member. The victim then stated the defendant began drinking and provided them with alcohol. She then advised after feeling intoxicated, the defendant took her to a makeshift bed and removed her underpants. The victim reported the defendant then removed his clothing and attempted to have sexual intercourse with her, however, she was unable to remember if he had sexually assaulted her due to her state of intoxication. The victim provided officers with a description of the defendant and said he was wearing an ankle bracelet.
